DAVID BEVAN RIP

Many parishioners will remember the late David Bevan, who was for many years was the Director of Music here at Holy Redeemer and whose death was announced last weekend. We join with his family and friends in mourning him, and at the same time giving thanks to God for his many years of service to God as a musician. He used his talents, not only to make his own contribution to the tradition of Sacred Music in the Church, but also to help others in their development as members of choirs and as musicians. May he rest in peace.

His funeral will be a Requiem Mass celebrated here at Holy Redeemer by Fr John Osman, Parish Priest of St Birinus, Dorchester-on-Thames, on Thursday 9 December at 12,30pm. The preacher will be our former Parish Priest, Canon Michael Brockie.
