The next day, 2 November, the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, we pray for all the Holy Souls. Mass at 8.00am and 6.30pm. During November and then throughout the year, Mass is celebrated for the Holy Souls. If you wish any of your family or friends to be included in this Mass intention, please write their name on a piece of paper and place it on the altar. ## BOOK LAUNCH

This Sunday we are hosting a book launch for "The Creed in Slow Motion", written by one of our parishioners, Martin Kochanski. Following on from his work of creating, editing and developing Universalis.com, "The Creed in Slow Motion" is for people who recite the Creed in church, but it goes slowly, phrase by phrase. It is not a textbook or a holy manual – it does not tell you what to believe, but in short but deep chapters reflects, expounds and explores what we say every Sunday. For more information, please visit creedinslowmotion.com This book is published by Hodder and Stoughton ISBN 9781399801546 and is also available on Amazon Kindle.
